SUMMER HAPPENINGS

We have two fantastic things happening this month.

First-of-all, a sew-in on Saturday, June 10th at the Pikesville Library at 1301 Reisterstown Rd, Pikesville, MD from 9am-3pm.

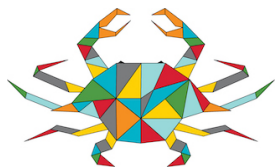

Do you have a quilt that you need to baste? We have the room. Need help or feedback on finishing your CYOA adventure? We will have people to support and spur you on. Would you like to work on a charity quilt? Or would you like to see some guild peoples and sew and sew? You can bring your machine, iron, etc. and do some sewing or you can stop by and chat and maybe bring us cookies. If you are planning on attending, please sign up using the link below. Thank you.

Second-of-all, we have a speaker on Sunday, June 11 at 1:30pm. (Zoom link to follow)

Cristina De Miranda is our speaker via Zoom. A member of the Toronto Modern Quilt Guild, she is the pattern designer behind Ships and Violins and a lover of color, pattern, and design. Her lecture/trunk show will begin with a look at her improvised patchwork pillows inspired by a thru-hike of the East Coast Trail, a long-distance coastal footpath through the Canadian province of Newfoundland and Labrador. She'll also talk about her work as a pattern designer, her approach to design, and pursuing a creative business.
